THE MINERS WON'T STRIKE

Decided to Accept Scale Fixed
Three Years Since.

Though the Miners and Operators
Are to Hold Another Conference
Over Differences.

LOST RUSSIAN CRUISER FOUND.

Seranton, Pa., May 5.—There is to be no strike of the miners of the anthracite districts. This was the result of a direct decision of the anthracite miners' convention, which has been in session here three days just before noon today. After much contention pro and con a resolution disapproving of a strike and deciding to return to work under the scale adopted three years ago and same conditions of the award made by the arbitration commission when President Roosevelt interfered at that time was passed. It is understood, by a decisive vote. The wording of the resolution is not given out, but it is said to accept the old award scale for a period of time to be determined by the operators and representatives of the miners in a conference between a sub-committee and the operators. Pending this conference, which it is thought can and will be held Monday, the convention adjourned until Tuesday. The suspension is to continue until the miners and operators may agree on the plan of resuming and continuing work.

Lost Russian Cruiser Found.

Vladivostok, Russia, May 5.—The Russian blockade running steamer, Seeray, which disappeared last autumn while awaiting orders regarding the landing of a cargo of arms at Vladivostok, has just been discovered at Nicksayevak, near Abur river completely encased in ice. The bodies of twenty members of the crew frozen stiff, were found on the steamer.

Moody to Test the Laws.

Washington, May 5.—Attorney General Moody said today: "It is the intention of the department of justice to begin at once an investigation of the relations of the Standard Oil company and a number of railroads with the view of determining whether there has been any violation of the anti-trust law." He would say no more, but actions in the courts will undoubtedly follow.

Snailshot at Zion City.

Chicago, May 5.—Zion City may be isolated from the world through the establishment of a quarantine within forty-eight hours because of the possibility of an epidemic of smallpox growing out of the people forming to resist compulsory vaccination.

In consequence the county and state officials have been called upon to act in the interests of the adjacent county and the city of Waukegan. Three persons are suffering from violent smallpox in an isolated building on the dreary expanse of sand skirting the lake. No medical aid is afforded as religious rules forbid such attention.

Soldier Attempts Suicide.

San Francisco, May 5.—Captain Webster, of the Twentieth Infantry attempted suicide this morning. He is in a serious condition at the Presidio hospital. Webster stabbed himself in the throat with a bayonet inflicting an ugly wound. Webster's home is in Missouri. Temporary insanity apparently only caused for the act.

Young Hunter Goes to Work House.

Lexington, Ky., May 5.—W. Godfrey Hunter, Jr., of Somerset, son of the former United States minister to Guatemala, was sent to the city work house today in lieu of a fine of $1 for intoxication.

POWERS BILL GIVEN QUIETUS.

Pass to Sleep by the House Committee on Judiciary.

Washington, D. C., May 5.—The bill prepared by John W. Langley and introduced by Representative Hughes for the relief of Caleb Powers is dead in the Judiciary committee. Members of the committee have decided against reporting it to the house, and it will never see the light of day.

The Republican members of the committee are convinced that it is clearly unconstitutional.

To Remove the Debris.

San Francisco, May 5.—Steps are being at once to remove the debris of the burned buildings on a scale that will bring early results in rebuilding the city. A vast network of spur tracks is being laid in the burned districts.

The circulation of The Sun for the month of April was 4,018, a day average. Business instinct tells you that it is the paper that tells its circulation daily that merits your confidence.

FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Many New York Companies Raise Rates and Cut Expenses.

New York, May 5.—Forced by losses sustained in the San Francisco fire and hoping to strengthen their reserves a score of fire insurance companies in this state have raised their rates and cut down the commissions of agents and brokers.

Considering the Future.

Chicago, May 5.—The directors of the Traders' Insurance company met again in executive session this morning to canvass the company's losses in San Francisco and determine whether it would be wise to continue business should the aggregate sum be over $2,000,000. If the loss is under $2,000,000 it is believed the directors will agree to make good all assets to the stockholder.

AFTER THE SULTAN

BRITAIN DETERMINED TO BRING HIM TO TRIAL.

Will Force the Dardanelles to Make the Turks Leave Disputed Territory.

London, May 5.—The presentation of what is tantamount to an ultimatum to Turkey and preparations of the British Mediterranean fleet for a demonstration in Turkish waters in event of non-compliance is expected to produce a speedy yielding on the part of the sultan and by a settlement by the withdrawal of the Turkish garrison pending the settlement of the rival frontier claims in Sinai Peninsula, which were left somewhat doubtful in previous negotiations. The sultan possibly may hold out longer in the hope that Great Britain will be reluctant to open the delicate question involving the forcing the Dardanelles in order to make a demonstration before Constantinople, but seeing none of the powers are inclined to support Turkey in her present attitude, this is considered unlikely.

To Assemble Fleet.

Malta, May 5.—The British cruisers Caradon, Barton, Suffolk and Venus and the special torpedo boat Vulcan, with destroyers, are proceeding in France.

The battleship Formidable, flagship of Vice-Admiral Charles Beresford, the battleship Irresistible and the cruiser Leviathan have arrived here from a cruise.

Receiver Named.

Chicago, May 5.—Byron L. Smith, president of the Northern Trust Co., was this afternoon appointed receiver for the Traders' Insurance Co. by Judge Mack, circuit court, and bond fixed at $2,000,000. The company is likely to go into liquidation in consequence of loss by the San Francisco fire.

BOLD DAYLIGHT ROBBERY COMMITTED

Farmer From Graves County
Robbed at I. C. Depot.

Was Relieved of Over $1000—No
Police About—"Stickup" Man Escaped.

FRUIT OF CUT POLICE FORCE

The first perceptible fruits of the board of police and fire commissioners' action in ordering Chief of Police James Collins to instruct his officers not to patrol the I. C. depot blossomed from a fast developing bold daylight robbery on the platform of the I. C. depot. A stranger was robbed of something like $110, and there was no officer near to interfere or trace the criminal down after the crime had been committed.

The story is vouched for by Baggageman William Flowers and the wife of the manager of the depot lunch stand; also a well known local insurance man who was at the depot during the performance.

A drunken farmer from Graves county was standing on the platform just south of the lunch room. He was thoroughly intoxicated and was approached by a fairly well dressed stranger. The latter caught the farmer by the shoulders and went into his first one pocket and then the other. Finally the farmer's "roll," amounting to something like $110 was taken. Those who saw the act the body in the lunch room and the insurance man thought at first the stranger was a friend who was taking the money because he did not have his companion capable of caring for a. After he had beat a hasty retreat the farmer began to remonstrate. An investigation drew from the befuddled man the fact that a bold daylight robbery had been committed within the eyesight of all. Baggageman Flowers notified the authorities but it was too late, the bird had left and no feathers remained in the way of a clue.

This occurred Thursday, after noon between 3:30 o'clock and 4:15 the time the accommodation train to Mayfield, arrived. Baggageman Flowers declared, "I investigated the best I could and learned the facts as I have stated them. There is not a day that something does not happen on the depot platform to require the services of an officer. The chief of police knows this, and so does his men—doubtless the commissioners themselves and the exclusion of officers from the depot is not a wise move by any means, no matter what purpose it was enacted for."

The farmer stated that he had sold his tobacco and had $150 when he came to the depot. All he had left was about $7 which he had stuffed away in a pocket which escaped the "stick up" man.

The depot will become the favorite haunt of all classes of criminals when it becomes generally known that police protection has been denied it by the commissioners.

Russian Bomb Thrower.

Warsaw, May 5.—M. Proskura-koff, chief of the traffic department of the Vistula railroad, was seriously wounded and M. Gutner, chief of another department and an officer servant were killed by a bomb yesterday afternoon. As they were leaving the office a man threw a bomb at them, smashing their cab and seriously wounding the cabman and some others.

Warned Against Threats.

Paris, May 5.—The police warned the Russian grand dukes Vladimir and Alexis, who are here, the police department would not be responsible for their safety, as many threats are made against them, by Russian anarchists plotting to kill them. The dukes will leave immediately.

Gave Her Divorce.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 5.—Judge Galloway granted Mrs. Della Dixon a divorce from her husband and from Dr. J. A. Dixon, a wealthy practitioner of Huttlesville, Allen county. In addition Mrs. Dixon was allowed $500 alimony for costs and her attorney fee $300.

THREE HUNDRED ITALIANS IN A RIOT

Pasie, N. J., May 5.—A serious riot occurred this morning in which three hundred Italian strikers were the aggressors. Eighteen of the rioters are known to have been shot and one policeman who was wounded, is not expected to recover.

PLENTY OF LABOR TO REBUILD CITY

San Francisco Is Not Short of Skilled Artisans and Can Get More.

San Francisco, May 5.—According to P. H. McCarthy, president of the Building Trades Council, there is no dearth of mechanics at this city. Between 2,000 and 2,100 men affiliated with the council are registered and this number, he says, will be more than ample to handle current operations. He advises against mechanics coming to San Francisco. The first time in a quarter of a century San Francisco is to have a municipal chain gang. Unable to find immediate quarters for misdemeanor offenders, Chief of Police L. J. Ryan announced today that until such time as the police courts were prepared to deal with this class of prisoners, they should all be put to work on the city streets.

THE STATE T. P. A. IN ANNUAL SESSION

Body Held Brief Session This Forenoon.

Election of Officers Was Chief Work and Selections Made in Pleasant Contests.

BANQUET TO FOLLOW "LABOR"

Officers Elected.

Carl H. Finck, Louisville, president; Oscar H. Starks, Paducah, first vice president; J. E. McKee, Mayfield, second vice president; A. J. Worsham, Henderson, third vice president; Ben Wolfe, Paducah, fourth vice president; E. S. Ourbacher, Louisville, fifth vice president; Ernest Lacey, Paducah, secretary and treasurer.

The annual state convention of the Travelers' Protective Association is in session in Paducah with a big delegation from Louisville in attendance. The convention began business this morning and finished the most important matters before noon in order that the social program should not be neglected.

The first business was the enrolling of members. It was found that Louisville came a great deal "stronger" than anticipated, and the delegation from the Falls City succeeded in carrying off honors in the election of a president. Paducah, however, elected a secretary and treasurer.

Following the enrollment the routine business was gone into. The election of officers brought forth lively halloing. The Paducah delegation was not strong enough to elect a president but the locals put up a strong fight. It was a matter of disappointment in one sense of the word, as the local post expected fully to have the presidency in Paducah.

Following the election of officers the matter of raising a fund for the sufferers from the San Francisco disaster was suggested. The association promptly voted $100 to the cause.

The matter of selecting a nominee for the state association's support for national president was discussed. The convention unanimously nominated Jerry M. Porter, of Clinton, and will send a big delegation to Buffalo to support him.

The Delegation.

The following delegation was elected to represent the state association, but there will be others from the state who will attend the meeting in Buffalo in June when the national association meets, and will put up a hard fight for Porter.

J. A. Smith, Louisville; P. Tarpy, Louisville; H. J. Janson, Louisville; J. P. Clement, Louisville; S. P. Jones, Louisville; H. O. Gray, Louisville; Louis F. Kolb, Paducah; H. Well, Paducah; Oscar H. Starks, Paducah; F. E. Lack, Paducah.

The following alternates were elected: D. O. Talcot, Louisville; W. R. Rice, Louisville; J. W. Vogt, Louisville; F. Gordon, Louisville; Mel Byrd, city; F. S. Ourbacher, Louisville; George Powell, Paducah; Ray Harris, Paducah; Milton Sanchez, Paducah; A. Thierling, Paducah.

Memento to Moore.

In appreciation of the excellent work done and because of his popularity the association presented Mr. Scott W. Moore, of Louisville, the retiring state president, with a fine diamond studded watch fob. Mr. Moore accepted the gift with a graceful speech, entirely impromptu, the gift coming as a surprise.

INDICTMENTS IN SUGAR CASES

New York Grand Jury Finds Many Bills.

Sufficient Evidence of Violations Under the Provisions of the Elkins
Anti-Trust Law.

BIG FINE AND IMPRISONMENT.

New York, May 5.—The federal grand jury yesterday handed down indictments in the sugar rebating cases against the following:
New York Central railroad.
American Sugar Refining company.

New York Central and Hudson River railroad.
Nathan Gullford, vice president of that company and F. L. Pomeroy, general traffic manager.
American Sugar Refining company, New York and C. Goodloe, Edgar and Edwin Earle, the latter two being wholesale sugar dealers of Detroit, Mich.

American Sugar Refining company and the American Sugar Refining company of New York, and Nathan Gullford, E. L. Pomeroy, C. Goodloe, Edgar and Edwin Earle. These indictments except the last named were found under the "Elkins" anti-trust law which provides penalties of a fine not exceeding $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding two years for violating the anti-trust law.

The last indictment found against Gullford, Pomeroy, Edgar and Earle charges them with having collectively conspired to violate the provisions of the Elkins' anti-trust law. The grand jury presentment addressed to court stated that the grand jury in concluding its labors deemed it proper to call attention to the gravity of the evils incident to the violation of the interstate commerce laws which have been practiced in respect to merchandise transported from New York City to various points in the West.

"The evidence investigated by us bearing upon the indictments which we have found," said the jury, "has incidentally revealed to be in existence of so many other instances of similar offenses as to indicate the general and systematic policy, pursued by certain large shippers, of extorting from railroad companies favors, the legality of which is at least questionable. The evidence before us has related mainly to the shipment of sugar from various refineries in this locality in the Western markets."

In addition to the cases in which indictments have been handed down evidence indicating rebates have been regularly given the sugar refiners and their customers by several interstate lines; that a regular allowance of two cents per hundred pounds has been made by various railroad companies to sugar refiners to cover alleged cartage, an allowance, which though usually published in tariffs, often represents no labor performed and which is not made to other shippers of similar commodities; and that other special favors of various kinds have been regularly made in regard to sugar shipments either to refiners themselves or to their officers or agents engaged in subsidiary business-like litigation.

"The evidence before us has shown clearly in several instances and has indicated it to be a fact generally that the Elkins' laws as to the giving of rebates have been disregarded since the day of its enactment."

Makes Denial.

New York, May 5.—Replying to the statement by Commissioner Gullford that the New York Central railroad refused to disclose its rates within New York state, W. H. Newman, president of that company said today:

"The company refused to furnish the state rate because the department has jurisdiction only over interstate commerce and that they cheerfully gave the department access to the company's interstate commerce books, just as they would give the proper state authorities information as to the state rate, if called for."

Session Was Finished Before Adjournment.

at noon, and this afternoon a very brief session was held. At 3 o'clock the meeting was adjourned in order to enable the association to "take in" the baseball game.

Tonight there will be a big banquet at the Palmer house which will conclude the session.

The next meeting will be held at Louisville next year.

Mr. George H. Powell, of the city, was the local association's candidate for president, but the Louisville delegation had the votes on the local boys and put in their candidates.

BATTLE WITH BURGLARS.

Young Woman Detects Thieves at Work, and One Is Shot.

Seranton, Pa., May 5.—Four burglars were discovered in the postoffice at Naway, Lackawanna county, by Miss Tillie Turner, the postmistress who lives over the office. Miss Turner slipped out of the building and opened fire on the burglars. The burglars returned the volley and made a dash.

A pitched battle ensued, with the burglars running down the road and a posse after them. One of the burglars was seen to drop in the roadway but the other three picked him up and succeeded in getting away with him. In the roadway where he fell was found a pool of blood, showing that he had been wounded.

The burglars carried off a large number of postage stamps and a small sum of money.

Kills Wife and Suicides.

Nashville, Tenn., May 5.—About six miles southeast of Hartsville, Ala., W. L. Earlen, aged 65, a prominent farmer, shot and killed his wife, about the same age, and then committed suicide. A revolver with two empty chambers, lying by the side of Earlen, told the story of the tragedy. Mrs. Earlen had been crazy for some time, and Mr. Earlen's mind had recently become unbalanced.

FAST TRAINS HIT

TWO PENNSYLVANIA PASSENGERS
ARE SMASHED IN COLLISION.

Report Has It That Many Passengers
Were Hurt or Killed
By Wreck.

Altoona, Pa., May 5.—The Chicago mail train, west bound, and the Chicago and St. Louis express, east bound, on the Pennsylvania railroad running at full speed, met head on near Springfield Furnace, eighteen miles from Altoona, at 11 o'clock last night.

A few hours before a freight train was wrecked at Fulton Furnace on the middle division and all trains were run around Altoona over the Pittsburgh cutoff. The Chicago mail went as far as Tyrone, where it was sent back to go over the cutoff. The St. Louis express was sent west from Huntington on the cutoff and the two trains met at Springfield Junction where there is but one track.

The cause of the disaster is said to have been a misunderstanding of the orders by the operator at Springfield Junction.

Railroad officials at Huntington and Williamsburg have received a report that both locomotives, express and mail cars and passenger coaches are completely demolished. One of the trains was running reversed with the day coach next to the engine.

Twenty-five passengers were in this and it is reported all are either dead or wounded. An official says it will be impossible to give the exact details as several people are placed under the wreckage.

Later Report.

Altoona, Pa., May 5.—The Pennsylvania railroad reports an investigation of the two fast passenger trains near here last night shows nine persons were killed and 27 injured. The victims were four postal clerks, a brakeman, a baggage master, an unknown woman supposed to be Mrs. W. N. Trinkle, of Duncan, Pa.; J. D. Conover, a traveling salesman of New York, and an unknown man. The wreck was due to misunderstanding of orders.

Heavy Fire Loss.

Denver, May 5.—The mammoth warehouse of the Transit and Warehouse company, with contents, was destroyed by fire today. Loss $300,000.

BODY WAS BLOWN OUT OF GRAVE

Extraordinary Story Reported
From Near Fulton.

Explosion of Mine Placed Around the Body Causes An Unprecedented Occurrence.

DEAD A VICTIM OF SMALLPOX

Mayfield, Ky., May 5.—An extraordinary incident is reported to have happened near Fulton Thursday afternoon. The grave containing the body of Dr. E. L. De Meyer, who died last Saturday at Florence, Tenn., near Fulton is reported to have blown up from the combustion of lime and the body and casket thrown some distance out of the grave.

Dr. E. L. De Meyer, whose death was mentioned several days ago in the Messenger, was brought from Florence, Tenn., and buried about two miles from Fulton. The remains were accompanied by two negro immigrants, who buried the body about midnight. On account of the death being caused by smallpox none but the two negroes were allowed to accompany the remains and this led much to the sadness of the affair.

Three barrels of unslacked lime were placed in the grave. The rains which have fallen so heavily this week caused the lime to come in contact with the water causing steam and gas to form in such quantities that the dirt which covered the grave was unable to withstand the pressure and gave way to the chemical explosion. The explosion, it is said, threw the coffin to the surface and the first ones to reach the scene viewed a horrible sight. As soon as the news was spread the excitement and interest caused great anxiety in that section. People were afraid to go near the grave for fear of contracting the infectious disease from the floating germs.

Amphitheatre Collapsed.

Peoria, Ill., May 5.—In the collapse of an amphitheatre at the Fulton county county track meet at Astoria, Ill., today Ethel Tingley of Avon, and Arthur Franz of Vermont, were probably fatally injured. Fifteen others suffered serious bruises and broken limbs. Three thousand people had massed into the frail structure which collapsed under the unusual weight.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 5.—It develops that Warren county has a school teacher famine, there being about half of the schools in the county that no one has yet applied for. This includes some of the best schools, and County Superintendent Emory White has advertised for teachers.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Miss Viola Allen comes Tuesday night, appearing as Betty Singleton in Clyde Fitch's play, "The Toast of the Town." Miss Allen, has according to all accounts, achieved the greatest success of her career in this play. It appears that Mr. Fitch has provided Miss Allen not only with a great play, but with a great role. It is rather curious that the two characters in which Miss Allen has achieved her greatest personal suc-

MISS VIOLA ALLEN.
In "The Toast of the Town," at The Kentucky Tuesday Night, May 8th

cesses should be while impersonating an actress, referring, of course, to Glory Quayle in "The Christian," and to the charming Betty Singleton in "The Toast of the Town." Miss Allen is one of those rare actresses whose charm it is impossible to adequately describe, for it is compounded of so many notable qualities. She is the daintiest of comedienne, full of finesse and delicate humor, while when tragic pathos is required, her heart holds us enthralled. The play is in four acts, and, while the title, "The Toast of the Town," might indicate a light and sketchy story, the play is, on the contrary, one possessed of strong dramatic moments. A striking thing occurs in the first act, when the charming Betty Singleton is making her farewell to the stage as Beatrice in "Much Ado About Nothing." The scene is the green-room in the theater, the play going on, of course, behind the scenes of the real play house, where we of today are seated. Betty has that day married the Duke of Malmesbury, the last act of "Much Ado About Nothing" is over, and there is a loud demand for a farewell speech by the concealed audience. Betty is seen to leave the green-room; then a green drop curtain is lowered in front of the stage and Miss Allen, still in her character, appears to speak to the real audience which is supposed to be the one seated in the old London playhouse. The production is said to be one of great magnificence, and the costumes and properties truly Fitchian, which means, of course, that they are novel and artistic. Miss Allen has never disappointed in the supporting companies provided by her manager, Charles W. Allen, and it is said, the one that assists her this manager of the theatre, and Harold de Becker, the call boy. Even the smaller parts are played by players of reputation.

Manager Roberts closes The Kentucky for the regular season after Miss Allen's performance Tuesday night. The house will be given a good house cleaning during the summer and put in first-class condition for the opening in the fall. The house was repainted last summer and will need very little attention to again be in excellent condition.

The season just coming to a close has been a very good one in point of excellence of attractions. Manager Roberts has made more friends for the popular play house by his administration, and all of them are hoping that he will be found in his usual place at the beginning of the next season.

Walter Damrosch and his famous orchestra come to The Kentucky tonight, and the event is one of the most important in the history of music in Paducah. This organization is world famed, and justly, for Damrosch has an orchestra that will compare most favorably with any in this country or any of the foreign countries.

Every individual in the orchestra is an artist of the first rank, and as Mr. Damrosch is quoted as saying there is hardly a man among the first violinists who could not play at least a half dozen violin concertos at a symphony concert with credit to himself and the orchestra.

The program is a very attractive one, and is as follows:

1. Overture, Mignon—Thomas.
2. Larghetto from Symphony No. 2—Beethoven.
3. Peer Gynt Suite No. 1—Grieg.
- A—In the Morning.
- B—Asa's Death.
- C—Anitra's Dance.
- D—In the Hall of the Mountain King.
4. Overture, "William Tell"—Rossini.
5. Concerto for Piano with Orchestra—Miss Zudie Harris. Played by the composer.
6. Prelude and Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin—Wagner.
7. March Slav—Tschalkowsky.

Next Saturday afternoon and night Manager Roberts will give two performances of "Rip Van Winkle," for the benefit of the San Francisco sufferers. He has secured an excellent company to put on the production and as the cause is so worthy it should be well patronized. Manager Roberts has offered a fine oil painting to the lady selling the greatest number of tickets, and $10 in gold to the one selling the next greatest number.

Here is Relief

"I did not know anything could stop my periodical pains entirely, but Wine of Cardui did," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley of Champco, Oreg. "I had suffered constantly in this way for four years, getting so bad that I was a total wreck, and would sometimes be unconscious for twelve hours at a time."

which greatly helped me, and now I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use it and be relieved as I have been." Cardui has a gentle, refreshing, strengthening effect, upon the womanly organs; it regulates fitful functions, and restores sick women to proper habits and health. It is a purely vegetable extract of true medicinal merit, and has been in successful use for these diseases for over half a century. Try it.

MAY.
Now, the bright morning star, day's harbinger
Comes dancing from the East, and leads with her
The flow'ry May, who from her green lap throws
The yellow cowslip and the pale primrose.
Hail, bounteous May, that dost inspire,
Mirth and Youth, and warm desire!
Woods and graves are of thy dressing;
Hill and dale doth boast thy blessing.
Thus we salute thee with an early song,
And welcome thee, and wish thee long.

Delightful Birthday Party.
Little Miss Elsie Eunice Vorla was the hostess of a pretty and informal little party on Monday afternoon at her home on West Broadway in compliment to the fourth birthday of Master James Arthur Peak of Chicago, who is visiting his aunt Mrs. Clifford Mills Lind. It was a most enjoyable affair with a big "sand pile" for a treasure-trove.

The delightful refreshments of ices, cakes, stuffed dates and salted nuts were served at a pretty hon-hon table set in pink effect. The centerpiece was a four-pronged candlestick with pink candles, and the pink and white birthday cake had the symbolic four candles.

With the exception of the charming hostess, it was an exclusive "stag affair" and the guests were: Masters James Peak, Leonard Campbell, James English, Jr., Henry Weil, Thompson Rivers, Henry Bradley, Joseph Phillips, Sam Langstaff, George Langstaff, Jr., Robert Jones, Hazzard Gardner, David Wright, Jr., James Smith.

Pretty May Day Fete.
Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler's May Day reception on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock was a charming affair. May Day responded to the compliment in an ideal manner that emphasized the beauty of the out-door setting and the many airy and dainty garden-party costumes that were in evidence.
The grounds were effectively arranged with palms and plants interspersing the shrubbery, a profusion of dogwood blooms adding to Maytime charm. In the center was a May pole with varicolored ribbons and a pretty feature was the May pole dance given by twelve children: Charlotte Wheeler and Henry Burnett, Juliet Thompson and Shinnott Meyers, Edith Sherrill and Orma Robb, Alvin Berry and Alvin Berry, Mollie Gardner and Wheeler, Mary Terry Burnett and William Hughes. They were prettily costumed the girls in foliage and flower effects of green, pink and red, and the boys in white. Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis sang the May Day song very attractively. The tables were set on the lawn and here delightful ices, strawberries, cake and lemon were served during the afternoon.

Miss Ham's Reveal.
Miss Caroline Ham's piano recital last evening at her home on North Sixth street was a very delightful occasion. It was an invitation affair and many guests were present. THE VELVET SECRET IS FREE TO YOU

THE LONGER THE LESSER—A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

After many years of study and practice a prominent Virginia physician has discovered the cure for all forms of Constipation. It is called Chas. Constipation Tablets. I do not mean, said the Virginia Doctor to several of his colleagues announcing his success—that this is a fake cure-all, guaranteed to cure every thing from pimples to paralysis, neither do I mean just another pill which breeds the "pill habit," my remedy is a cure for one thing—a specific which never fails. By gently forcing the digestive organs so that they perform their natural functions. It restores them all to health and strength, relieves immediately and in a short time cures Constipation.

THE MORE THE LESS

The more you take the less you need until you need none—for you are cured. My effort all along was to avoid the evil of the ordinary remedy which rammers organs already weak and so makes the patient a slave to the pill. Remember—Nature expects every organ to do its duty.

Physicians have long recognized the fact that constipation is at the bottom of nearly every disease. It saps all energy, and makes life a burden; it opens the doors to all evil germs and makes the body too weak to resist them.

THE VELVET WORKER

When a man's liver is working properly, the bowels are regular and the kidneys are active and healthy, what a joy it is to live. You get up in the morning feeling rested and bright after a good night's sleep, with a keen appetite for breakfast and a healthy relief for each mouthful, and when you go out the air smells good and you feel your lungs with pleasure; the sun shines, the birds sing, your every sense is acute and appreciative, the blood bounds through your veins, carrying life and activity to every minute cell and tissue, your hopes are high, your mind clear, you spritely kick, you step buoyant, and you thank God that everything is so beautiful and that it is so good to live, even feels like that.

FREE TRIAL OFFER

To any reader who sends us his or her name and address with five stamps to cover postage, expense, we will at once mail a full size 25-cent bottle of Chas. Constipation Tablets, the velvet worker that cures. Not a sample, mind, but a full-size 25-cent bottle. Let us prove it to you. Write today, addressing—

Daily Thought.

"Without cheerfulness there can be no healthy action, physical, mental or moral, for it is the normal atmosphere of our being."

THE REBATES AND THEIR PAIS

The government has clearly gotten around to the point at last where it has a case against the parent of all trusts, and unless all the advance reports are greatly exaggerated magnates who heretofore have defied the authorities and the people will soon be in the hardest corner that ever has fallen to their lot.

Congress and the country now know all about it. Commissioner of Corporations Garfield's much heralded report on his investigation of the oil combination is with the senate and house. It was submitted by the president who received the report from the commissioner in a message to congress Friday, as epitomized in these columns that day.

The report is lengthy and covers many charges. The officials of the Standard Oil company, therefore, have something more in store to worry about than an expose of the vast multitude of shippers who have had to pay the freight on which the railroads in turn pay dividends. Criminal prosecution for conspiracy under the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law stares them in the face.

Rebating, when the offenders are caught at it and brought to justice, means fine. Conspiracy, when apprehended, means imprisonment for somebody if duty is performed fully. It is asserted on the best of authority that Commissioner Garfield in the language that is best understood, "has the goods" on the Standard Oil company, the same as he had them on the beef trust, with the essential difference that immunity baths have not been administered in the present instance.

When the government has concluded prosecuting the cases which are certain to grow out of the findings of Commissioner Garfield the oil and railroad kings will have been exposed in their shortcomings more than the big insurance swindlers were, and the country will have more startling facts to consider than they even dream of when considering how they were being held up by the combines. They will soon, however, find consolation in the fact that ill-gotten money is always money which brings its curse.

ment on the court features of the railroad rate bill. The Republicans very shrewdly effected this compromise robbing the Democrats, in the meantime, of any chance to claim credit for this work, as they hoped to be able to do. The bill is now in practical shape for passage and also in a form which it is believed will be acceptable to the president.

Lexington has effected a slight moral wave. The council has passed a law giving the mayor right to close the saloons of the place at midnight and on Sunday. This is a decided step in good order for Lexington.

The rate bill occupied the senate yesterday and the navy appropriation bill the house. Little progress if any was made on the bills.

Dowie seems more of an immortal heeler than he is a divine healer.

The Cure of Headaches.

By Osteopathy.

"What bone would you pull to treat a headache?" asks a layman. Any bone that may be out of its correct position in the neck or back, so as to bring its pressure upon the nerves which express the pain sense—that is, if the headache happens to be due to a bony slip; but of course it may not be at all. That is one frequent cause, but there are many others which are apt to be operative. A muscular contraction in the back, in the neck, or over the head, may likewise cause headache. Indigestion, eye-strain, mental fatigue, a sluggish liver, constipation, kidney disease, and many other things are frequent causes of headache. Hence the cure of headache osteopathically is the cure of its cause or causes. To find the remedy these causes, having as they usually do, an anatomical basis, requires special and thorough training, and that is why osteopathy exists as an independent school of medicine. Its practitioners are specialists. They cure headaches, as they do other diseases not by "pulling" a bone, unless a bone needs "pulling," but by finding the cause of each special headache and giving that cause whatever treatment is needed to cure it. So in a dozen different headaches none might be treated alike osteopathically, and yet ten or eleven of the dozen would likely be cured.

Osteopathy is probably doing more for suffering humanity than any recent discovery, and I should like for you to investigate its merits. I should be pleased to see all who may be interested in osteopathy at any time from 9 a. m. to 12 and 2 to 5 p. m.

Osteopathy is the sane, rational treatment of illness and disorders.

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

We like best to call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine. It is a term that aptly describes the character and action of our Emulsion. More than a medicine—more than a food, yet combining the vital principles of both. It is for this reason that Scott's Emulsion has a distinct and special value in all wasting diseases. There is nothing better to remedy the troubles of imperfect growth and delicate health in children. The action of Scott's Emulsion is just as effective in treating weakness and wasting in adults.

The rousters' methods of unloading freight are frequently unique as well as ludicrous. Yesterday in unloading some steers one rouster went in front-pulling the balky steer by a dually he decided between these two other came behind twisting the steer's tail sort of goat fashion. While the animals showed no disposition to kick the man in the rear, if one had done so it would have been a keen source of pleasure to the rousters, for any mishap to a fellow rouster occasions hilarious outbursts of laughter, their sense of humor being somewhat grotesque.

The Charlotte Boeckler will not leave today as expected but will be here until Tuesday or Wednesday.

The Mississippi from Chester to Calro not much change during the next 36 hours.

The Paducahans Won.

This morning the local High school baseball team played the High school teams from Calro and Metropolis a double header at League park. Both games were won by the local boys by the narrow margin of one score. The game with Calro ended with the score 11 to 12. Up to the ninth inning the score stood 8 to 11 in Calro's favor, but the local boys were equal to the emergency and in the sixth pushed over 5 scores and won the game.

A large crowd was out and some good playing was witnessed. The feature of the game with Calro was the battery work of Hagley and Cope for the local team. The score:

Paducah	12 16 4
Calro	11 6 0

The game with Metropolis was decidedly faster and was played with a vim. The final score was 7 to 6. Yeiser pitched the last game.

THE WEEK IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD

Clearings at the banks, $765,728.84
Same week last year ... 638,069.00

Increase 127,719.84

Clearings this week reflect a heavy business at the banks, the increase over last year is a substantial one.

All lines of trade are very active, and wholesalers are well pleased with the conditions. Manufacturers are running full handed, and looking for more help all the time, which is a happy condition, and their books are full of orders. Prices are holding up well, and are shaded only in a few lines.

Retail trade has been very good. The season, however, is a little backward.

The building trades, are, to some extent, disorganized as a result of the differences of the carpenters and contractors, but an early settlement is hoped for, as the indications are for a good season in the building lines.

The Dime Report.

New York, May 5.—R. U. Day & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The violent decline in prices in securities is no criterion of business conditions. Railway earnings have continued to surpass those of the corresponding period in any previous year, the gain for April being 9.3 per cent. over the same month of 1905, and other standards of measurement make equally gratifying exhibits. The abilities of failures last month showed a decrease of 40 per cent. in manufacturing and 15 per cent. in trading branches of business as compared with the previous year.

The only drawbacks regarding the future are the labor controversies and the stringency in the money market, neither of which may prove more than temporary duration. Manufacturing plants have little idle machinery, and trade in seasonal merchandise feels the impetus of settled weather.

Foreign commerce for the last week shows gains of $1,909,872 in exports and $2,943,729 in imports, as compared with the same week last year. Commodity prices are well maintained by a good demand and the crop outlook is fully as bright as usual at this date.

Of greatest importance to the iron and steel industry of all the events of the past week was the strike of longshoremen on the lake water front. If this struggle is not promptly settled it will soon become impossible to maintain pig iron production at the highest point on record.

Textile mills maintain activity, although new business comes forward slowly.

Tanners evince a disposition to operate more conservatively, which has checked the upward tendency of hides. Leather has developed more irregularly.

Manufacturers of footwear occupy a most independent position because of the liberal contracts now unfilled.

Failures this week in the United States are 212, against 215 last week and 212 the corresponding week last year. Failures in Canada number 31, against 20 last week and 22 last year.

LIKE A FLASH

DID THE FRISCO SHOCK CROSS THE CONTINENT.

Sped at Rate of 15,532 Feet Per Second, an Aggregate of 17 Minutes.

All the indications as to the cause of the San Francisco earthquake point to a local origin, writes Garrett P. Serviss in the New York American. It is probable that the slip, or fracture, in the underlying rocks which led to the disaster occurred deep beneath the surface (perhaps several miles) and not far from the Golden Gate.

From this center the shock spread in all directions. If it had been situated a considerable distance out at sea there might have been a destructive wave thrown upon the coast. The fact that there was no such wave indicates that the center of disturbance was close to the coast, and possibly under the land, perhaps at some little distance from the seashore.

San Francisco, being situated close to the point of origin of the shock and possibly directly over it, felt the full force of the earthquake, the vibrations being transmitted straight to the foundations of the city.

A more accurate record of the times would probably somewhat reduce the calculated speed; yet it is not likely that more than twenty minutes were consumed by the vibrations in crossing the continent.

Earthquake vibrations are transmitted through the earth as a whole and also along the surface, where they become horizontal waves. In this case the Rocky Mountains and the coast ranges interposed no obstacle to the progress of the surface undulations. For this reason the vibrations recorded at Washington undoubtedly were transmitted directly through the body of the earth passing under the bases of the mountains.

By comparing the recorded times of the occurrence of the first shock at San Francisco and of the beginning of the vibrations at Washington we can deduce the speed with which the earthquake wave rushed through the solid globe. The first shock at San Francisco was at 5:13 a. m., Pacific time. That would correspond at 8:13 a. m., eastern time. The first vibrations reached Washington at 8:30, eastern time. Consequently the actual time elapsed while they were crossing the continent was seventeen minutes.

This corresponds to a speed of 174½ miles per minute, or 15,532 feet per second, assuming that the total distance traversed was 3,000 miles, and that the times are accurate. This is somewhat above the highest recorded speed of earthquake waves hitherto known, although they have been found traveling more than 14,000 feet per second.

Vibrations taking a still deeper course through the earth would emerge in the Atlantic ocean. Very deep ones might reach the coasts of Europe and be recorded by seismic instruments there. They would probably, however, be very weak at that distance.

In the other direction the shocks must have been transmitted to the Pacific ocean with considerable violence, and ships at sea may possibly have noticed them, and they may have reached Hawaii or even the eastern coast of Africa. They must also have spread north and south.

In regard to the question of danger on the Atlantic coast from a great earthquake shock in California (a question that has been raised on account of the phenomena noticed in Washington) it should be said that it is practically impossible that any serious effect of that kind could be produced. The most powerful, earthquake on record was that of Lisbon in 1755, but while on that occasion a sea wave was sent across the Atlantic ocean in nine and a half hours and more or less severe shakings were experienced as far away as the British Islands, the serious damage was confined to the city of Lisbon and its immediate neighborhood.

Thin Hair

Yes! We had noticed that your hair was looking pretty thin, and that it lacked luster and life. But we didn't like to speak of it! Of course you know that Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair-grower, makes the hair soft and smooth, gives it life and strength. This isn't the kind of hair that falls out! And, too, it keeps the scalp so clean and healthy.

Girls Will Be Girls.

"Where is he, Jennette?"

"Gone."

"Gracious! Is the engagement really broken?"

"I should say so. I hope I shall never see him again."

"This is awful. You have my sympathy, dear."

"I don't need sympathy. Didn't I tell you I hated him?"

"All right, dear, I am going and—"

"Wait a minute."

"Well?"

"If—if you should accidentally meet him anywhere would you tell him that I still live in the same place and—that I stay at home and sew now the nights he used to talk? And—and if he should care to come back—let, of course, I would never think of such a thing—would you—would you be my bridesmaid?"

Dear Doctor—

I owe you so much—for you saved my mama's life—she was awfully sick—the Doctor came and Papa cried—so did I—The Doctor could not help her—but Aunt Emma—She told mama to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—and so she got well in mough time.

I thank you very much
To Dr. R. V. Pierce. Enid Decker.

Many mothers of families in the United States have reason to be grateful to Dr. R. V. Pierce for his Favorite Prescription. This is a medicine specially prescribed for diseases of womanhood. It does not cure eczema, catarrh in all its forms, nor heart disease, for it is put up for the single purpose of curing diseases peculiar to women. It has a reputation of over a third of a century of cures, and has sold more largely on this continent than any other medicine for women. Another point in its favor—it does not contain a single drop of alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. An alcoholic compound for women is something no woman should take and yet "Favorite Prescription" is the only tonic and nerve put up for sale through druggists, especially for women's weaknesses, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Women's weakness will always bring nervous irritability and a nervous condition, for which alcohol is the worst thing in the world. What a woman thus afflicted needs is a vegetable tonic and invigorating nerve like Dr. R. V. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which will build up her delicate system and bring about a healthy tone. It cures the drains and weaknesses of women, also displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion, retroversion, irregular and painful periods and kindred ailments.

If you want to know what ails you the United States mail will bring you the best medical advice for only the cost of writing materials and stamps. Many women owe their present good health to the fact that they consulted Dr. R. V. Pierce by letter, giving him all possible information about their condition, symptoms, etc., and received in return good medical advice which cost them nothing. This is why we advise you to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, the founder of the "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute," at Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce by no means confines himself to prescribing his well-known proprietary medicines. He tells you in the most common-sense way what ails you, what you ought to do, what line of treatment should be followed out in your particular case, and if your case does not indicate the need of his proprietary medicine, he tells you plainly and frankly what you do need, and the best possible method of improving your health. If you are a young woman just entering upon the duties of life, you should have good medical advice of a confidential nature. If you're the mother of children, you may want advice about yourself and how best to put your system in order that your children may be healthy. To sufferers from chronic diseases which do not readily yield to treatment, or to people who are past the youthful stage of life and want confidential advice about their ailments or their physical condition, Dr. Pierce offers careful consideration and the best medical advice within his power, free of cost.

"Favorite Prescription" is indeed an ideal medicine for women, and by far the best I have known to restore lost health and strength," writes Mrs. B. C. Roeder, 24 Ingram Street, Henderson, Ky. "I suffered misery for several years, being troubled with flooding. My husband and I had been down and frequent headaches. Would, often awake from sleep in such pain and suffering it would be hours before I could close my weary eyes again. I dreaded the long nights as well as the weary days. Consulted two different physicians hoping to get relief, but finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me I tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as a friend had recommended it so strongly. Am glad that I followed her advice for it was the only

People and Pleasant Events

Civic Work and Children.
The "Children's Hour" yesterday afternoon at the Carnegie library, was a most interesting one. About 50 children were present and Miss Alice Compton entertained them very delightfully.
Miss Compton emphasized the work a child can do in connection with beautifying a town and the good that can be accomplished by even the smallest, with civic pride. She made a little talk along this line and then illustrated it very happily with a story. The children gave most earnest attention.
These meetings have had such success that the library board will resume them in the fall. It was thought best to discontinue during the hot weather, and yesterday was the final one for this season.

AGED WOMAN DIES.

Mrs. Amanda Wilkins Expired Last Night, Quite Suddenly.

Mrs. Amanda Wilkins, age 77, died at her home, No. 601 South Fourth street, last night at 10:30 o'clock while seized with a smothering spell of which she has been subject for several years. She died within a short time after the physician arrived.

The deceased was born in Lexington, Ky., but had been living in Paducah for more than 50 years. She was the widow of Samuel Wilkins and was well known and popular on the South Side. She leaves several relatives in Paducah and a sister in Lexington. Mr. Joe Washington the ship carpenter, is a son-in-law and Sam Washington a grandson.

The N. M. & C. R. R. to Be Built. Mayfield, Ky., May 3.—Chief Engineer Peyton, of Louisville, was in the city Thursday morning after the interests of the Cairo, Mayfield and Nashville railroad. This company has now surveyed one complete line from Cairo to a point on the N. C. and St. L. south of Murray. It has three lines surveyed from the same point, within a short distance of Mayfield. It also has another line surveyed from Cairo to within a few miles of Fancy Farm.

Mr. Peyton says the work is moving along as well as could be expected and that the people need have no fears regarding the building of this new line. The surveys are still at work perfecting the route that will be decided between these two points.

May Accept Wire Inspectors. W. J. McPherson, of Pittsburgh Pa., who was invited here by Fire Chief James Wood to consider the position of building and wire inspector for this city, arrived yesterday and is looking over the town. He is said to be a good man, and his appointment to the position will be submitted to the legislative boards next week for ratification. It is presumed the boards will not delay the matter any longer, but will ratify the appointment at once and avoid complications with the insurance people.

On Reception Committee. Engineer Joe Randall has gone to Chicago to meet delegates to the International Engineers' Association and accompany them to Memphis where the annual meeting will be held commencing Wednesday, the 9th. Engineer Randall is on the reception and entertainment committee. There will be a special train of 18 sleepers out of Chicago conveying delegates to Memphis. The meeting will last about one month.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If party allow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexions. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA will digest what you eat and put your stomach back in right shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by Lang Bros.

Carpenters Still Out. There is no change in the status of the carpenters' strike, but the contractors are quoted as saying that they will form a combine to finish all work now on hand and then let the matter of building rest until the strike is adjusted.

It is the intention of all contractors to borrow and loan men from each other necessary to finish up the urgent work now being delayed by the strike.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ills than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. Sold by Lang Bros.

An Error of the Dispatch.

Through an error in the dispatch it was stated that the McCracken circuit court had been reversed in the case of the Paducah Company's company against Corlith. The case went up from Crittenden circuit court, Judge Gordon presiding. The correction is made in Justice to Circuit Judge Wm. Reed.

For a painful burn there is nothing like DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are a host of imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the market—see that you get the genuine.

Dies of the "White Plague."

Joseph E. Bell, age 25, of 1528 Jones street, died yesterday afternoon late of consumption, after a two months' confinement in bed.

The deceased was married and leaves a wife and two children. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at Oak Grove, services conducted by Rev. B. W. Bass.

Why take a dozen things to cure that one? Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar allays the congestion, stops that tickling, drives the cold out through your bowels. Sold by Lang Bros.

Tadlock has proven his name. Tadlock "locked" the Hyphens out of a run yesterday afternoon at Wallace park in the second game of the Killy season, and allowed them but one single hit. Only two men reached first, one on a hit and the second on an error. One was thrown out trying to steal, and the other gained second base through a low throw of Nippert's.

It was a great pitching performance, and Tadlock had the Hyphens at his mercy from start to finish. The little pitcher was the picture of confidence when he took his stand in the box. The first man up fanned the air in vain effort to connect with the pitcher's wonderful speed and curves. Tadlock pitched up shoots, drops, side slants, fast and slow balls, and mixed them up generally. The Hyphens saw it a hopeless case and it was not until the fifth inning that any safe connection was made with the Illinois boy's delivery. Armstrong was the lucky batsman and he sent a hot one straight at the big twirler. Tadlock sidestepped and the sphere rolled out to Eddie Taylor.

This much for the Hyphens. They were completely mastered and while they put up the fight of their life, had little chance. Brilliant fielding was a feature of the game and Eddie Gilligan did a part of it. Perry did some more and every Indian had a hand in the fun.

The Indians' Performance.
The Indians piled up four runs in the early youth of the game. Two runs were tallied in the first and two in the second innings, but after that it was a matter of hen fruit—goose eggs. The Indians continued to fight and kept the Hyphens on their mettle the game through.

In the first inning Taylor drove a liner to left garden and made safe. McClain followed with a bunt down the third base line. Armstrong let it get through him and McClain landed safe on first. Taylor and McClain, with Gilligan at the bat, pulled off a double steal and Gilligan hit a popout to the infield back of first base. Ensling handled the ball, quickly but Taylor crossed the plate ahead of the throw. Haas bunted to Ensling, pulling off the "squeeze play" and it worked beautifully. McClain crossed the rubber before Fleming had handled the ball from the bat. Haas was retired. Wetzel walked and while trying to steal was thrown out.

In the second inning Perry drew four of a kind and Miller singled to right field. Nippert singled and filled the bases. He lunted to the infield and beat the throw out. Tadlock fanned and Taylor bunted to the ground. Perry and Miller scored on the play. McClain walked. Gilligan hit to the ground and Fleming handled the ball to Langston who fielded to Berryhill, completing a fast double play.

The Indians went out of the run getting business after this, but several times had the Hyphens in risky places. The summary follows:

WAR WHOOFS.

Nippert and Tadlock worked together like a machine. Nippert can get the good out of young pitchers. He knows the game, and with "Nip" doing the coaching, the class of youngsters will fast develop.

Diedl, in center field, robbed Miller of at least a double yesterday. The catch was a sensation.

Wetzel made a wild throw, the only error made by the Indians yesterday. It was excusable. The hit was far out to the line, and the runner fast.

Eddie Gilligan and "Red" Perry both made sensational stops yesterday.

Manager Berryhill is one of the most gentlemanly managers the writer has ever seen. His conduct on the ball field, as it is in private life, is perfect. He is not for rowdy playing. He is quiet, a hard worker, and believes he will put up a hard fight when he gets his team straightened out.

The Indians are playing the bunting game to perfection. The work yesterday was an illustration of the signal methods and what can be accomplished through a silent code.

Fred Miller pitches today. He is the big left-handed 29-year-old slab artist. His steam is wonderful and his curves puzzling. Miller has something back of it all, and will doubtless prove as much a puzzle as did Tadlock.

Umpire Devaney had to bench Watts yesterday. This is the first trouble between umpire and player. Watts could not find Tadlock and took the spite out on Devaney.

Umpire Devaney's work is good and he seems to be a fair and impartial umpire.

Jacksonville comes to Paducah Sunday for a series of three games. Mattoon will go to Calro tomorrow morning for three games.

Virge Perry and his L. A. L. team will go to Princeton tomorrow morning to play the Princeton independent team.

C. P. Akers will organize the L. C. Central team tomorrow morning and will play a practice game in the rear of the L. C. shops.

The L. A. L. team will play the Bloomer Girls, a woman baseball team, here on May 20. The date has been definitely arranged and the game will likely draw well, this being first visit of the Bloomer Girl team to Paducah in two years.

Land Is Home Sick.
Grover Land, the Indians' graduate in the Big Milt position, is homesick for the reservation. Last night the sporting editor of The Sun received a souvenir postal card from Toledo, O. It was from Land, and the brief appeal written at the bottom of the picture, a colored lithograph of the Toledo armory, read as follows:
"Please send me a paper once in a while."
"BIG LAND."

Land calls Paducah his home, and he would like mighty well to come back. The Toledo management is not working the big catcher much and Grover is anxious for work.

South Bend, Ind., knocked Buck Freeman out of the box for Evansville day before yesterday. He bled, but our linings and allowed only 11 hits. Brazins was substituted and did a little better. The game ended 13 to 1 in favor of South Bend.

CONVINCING SOLDIERS.

Restlessness the Cause of Desertions—City Recruits the Best.

Lieutenant Wm. Reed is expected down today a sweeper in the men recruited at the local station.

Sergeant Blake, who has charge of the local recruiting station, in an interesting discussion of army conditions in general and particularly the desertion problem which is just now occupying the attention of Mr. Taft, secretary of war, expresses his opinion that the desertion is an inevitable part of army life that is not due to any hard conditions in the army, nor to the men leaving for more lucrative positions in civil life as some one has suggested, for men do not go into army life for pay, neither do they desert for financial reasons.

He knows of many instances where men desert at other posts after deserting from temporary restlessness. It will be a surprise to some people to know that the best soldiers, and the most recruited from the cities. It has been generally thought that the country boy with his more regular habits and physical labor would be the best material, but here again it is surprising to know that city bred men have better physiques and are better built as a rule, than the country boys.
